

Amendment No. 5 to HB0082

Fincher
Signature of Sponsor

AMEND Senate Bill No. 19*

House Bill No. 82

By deleting all of the language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 39-17-1350, is amended by designating the existing language of subsection (d) as subdivision (1) and by adding the following language as a new subdivision (d)(2):

(2) For purposes of this section, “law enforcement officer” also means judges, including judges of courts of general sessions, judges of juvenile courts, judges and chancellors of any court of record in this state, and retired judges and chancellors, current and former members of the Tennessee general assembly, current district attorneys general, and current assistant district attorneys who comply with all of the following requirements:

(A) The judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney must be authorized to carry a weapon by §§ 39-17-1351 — 39-17-1360;

(B) The judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney must complete, at the expense of the judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney, the firearms component of the of the Basic Law Enforcement Course that is included within the minimum curricula requirements for police officer certification as established in the rules of the Tennessee peace officer standards and training commission pursuant to title 38, chapter 8; and

(C) Beginning in the year immediately following the year in which the judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney completes the requirement of subdivision (B), the judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney must annually complete, at the expense of the judge, current or former legislator, current district attorney general, or current assistant district attorney, the firearms requalification requirement of the In-Service Training Requirements for police officers as established in the rules of the Tennessee peace officer standards and training commission pursuant to title 38, chapter 8.

SECTION 2. The Tennessee peace officer standards and training commission shall establish by rule an appropriate fee to charge judges, current or former members of the Tennessee general assembly, current district attorneys general, and current assistant district attorneys who take the firearms component of the of the Basic Law Enforcement Course and the firearms requalification requirement of the In-Service Training Requirements for police officers. The fee shall be sufficient to defray all cost of participation in such training.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.